LOCAL NEWS OF ALL SORTS

The Weather To-day.
Increasing cloudiness and showers; warmer;
South winds.

Street Football Proved Costly.
For playing football in the streets Charles Fleming, a sixteen-year-old boy, was arrested by Policeman Gleason and fined $3 by Judge Kimball yesterday.

For the Benefit of His Children.
The will of the late John W. Butler, made September 27 last, leaves all his property to his executor, Frederick C. Linger, for the benefit of his children, Cora, Edith, and John L. Butler.

"Crying John" Sent Down Again.
John Shutter, otherwise known as "Crying John" owing to his habit of going from one barroom to another and crying piteously for drinks, appeared in Judge Kimball's court yesterday and tremblingly answered not guilty to a charge of vagrancy, while crouching down his head in his hands.

She Forsook the Straight Path.
Lectra M. Minor yesterday sued Mary Minor of No. 1410 Sampson street northwest for divorce. They were married in Gordonsville, Va., September 18, 1878, by the Rev. Noah Wells, a Baptist minister. They have no children. On December 31, 1910, the defendant deserted him to associate with gamblers and lewd women.

He Had Been to the Races.
Mary Barnes was yesterday convicted of stealing a watch, locket, and some money from Michael O'Connell. She and Martha Palmer and Irene Harris, other colored girls, were arrested in the street at Eighth and G streets northwest after he had been to the races and robbed him. The other girls were acquitted.

Forged Whiteford on Trial.
The trial for forgery of William Whiteford, who was Senator Gorman's secretary thirteen years ago, was begun yesterday before Judge Cole. He is charged with forging the name of M.
Lanza, manager of the Columbia Chemical Company, to two checks for $2,000 each, which were cashed by the Metropolitan National Bank, and the forgery was only discovered when Lanza came to look over his checks, when he found his balance less than he supposed. S. D. Truitt and Harris Lindsay are the attorneys.

His Wife Wore the Pants.
John Dunn, an old man with imperial white hair and long hair, was charged in the police court yesterday with keeping a disorderly house on R Street between Twenty-first and Twenty-second streets. Dunn pleaded guilty, but said the house was kept by his wife, who wore the pants.
"You must keep her under control," said Judge Kimball. The prisoner promised to go to the police and "sweat off" his wife, but would not have a word to say to her until the old lady in the future. He was fined only $10, under the confession mentioned.

Russell A. Alper Camp Elects Officers.
Gen. Russell A. Alper Camp, No. 21, Maryland Division, Sons of Veterans, held their annual election of officers for the ensuing year on Thursday evening, December 6, at their headquarters, No.
708 O Street northwest, and the following officers were chosen: Captain Judd Malvin (re-elected); first lieutenant, George A. Scott; second lieutenant, George A. Scott; sergeant, Benjamin R. L. E. black camp council, Sherman Brooks, William Harris, and John G. Scott; alternate, L. M. Collins; delegate, David M. Turner (re-elected); Gustav, Victor Glascock, and the senior vice division commander, Dr. Hamilton S. Smith, were selected by the campmaster for installing commission.

Teachers' Club Meeting.
The Central Sunday School of Club held a meeting at Foreman M. E. Church for instruction. Dr. Gilbert had charge.

One of the prettiest exhibits of all ornaments

THE PATIENCE OF JOB.

The Story of a Man Afflicted with Boils for Twenty-two Years.

Ancient history tells us that Job was the most patient man. It also tells us that Job was afflicted with boils; in this respect, however, he was probably no worse off than Mr. Peter R. Gunkle, an employee of the Richmond and Danville Railroad Company. Mr. Gunkle says: "I was troubled with boils for twenty-two years. Half the time I was unable to work, and for three months during the winter year I could not walk. Doctors and medicines did me no good until I consulted Dr.
Walker, the specialist. His treatment, which he told me was best for the blood and the nervous system--for I was badly run down-- had an immediate effect. The boils soon disappeared, and I have had none since. Besides, I am in better physical condition than I ever was before."

Among the many Washington people who have been cured by Dr. Walker of that Washington disease, catarrh, is Mr. T. D. Collins, residing at 616 H Street southwest. Mr. Collins was born and reared in Washington, and is at present in the employ of the Union Transfer Company. In an exhaustive statement made and subscribed before W. A.
Brown, notary public, Oct.
23, 1894, he says: "For five years I was a victim of nasal catarrh and catarrh of the stomach, for which I could find no cure until I went to Dr. Walker. He relieved my suffering almost immediately, and I am now entirely well."

Rheumatism is a disease that baffles the majority of physicians, but Dr. Walker has received a large number of testimonials from people who have been cured by him after other doctors failed. Among these is one from Mr. Fred Roesler, the well-known baker, who resides at 332 McLean avenue, and whose place of business is at 623 E Street northwest.
"I was a sufferer from catarrh and rheumatism for three years," says Mr. Roesler in a statement subscribed and sworn to before W. A.
Brown, notary public. "At times my sufferings were intense, and I felt that life was not worth living. I am now a well man, thanks to Dr. Walker."

These are but fair samples of hundreds of testimonials showing that Dr. Walker succeeds where other physicians fail in the cure of all disorders of the brain and nervous system, diseases of the skin and blood, catarrh, asthma, consumption, dyspepsia, malaria, rheumatism, neuritis, hemorrhoids, diseases of women, loss of vitality, sexual weakness, and all affections of the lungs, throat, heart, liver, stomach, kidneys, bladder, bowels, and other organs.

Young or middle aged men suffering from the effects of their own follies, vices, or excesses, or men contemplating marriage who are conscious of any impediment or disqualification, or those who feel their youthful vigor and power declining, should consult Dr. Walker, who has been the means of restoring hundreds of such unfortunate to health, strength, and happiness.

Dr. Walker may be consulted free of charge, personally or by letter. His well-known sanitarium at 1411 Pennsylvania avenue, adjoining Willard's Hotel, is open daily for consultation and treatment, 10 a. m. to 10 p. m.; Sundays, 10 a. m. to 12 p. m.

Charges for treatment very low.
